Matthew 28:19-20

¹⁹ Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,
²⁰ and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.”

Luke 24:46-47

46 He told them, “This is what is written: The Messiah will suffer and rise from the dead on the third day, 47 and repentance for the forgiveness of sins will be preached in his name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

Acts 1:7-8

7 He said to them: “It is not for you to know the times or dates the Father has set by his own authority. 8 But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.”

Matthew 28:19-20

John 1:40-42

40 Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, was one of the two who heard what John had said and who had followed Jesus. 41 The first thing Andrew did was to find his brother Simon and tell him, "We have found the Messiah" (that is, the Christ). 42 And he brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him and said, "You are Simon son of John. You will be called Cephas" (which, when translated, is Peter[g]).

A photograph of a corkboard. On the right side, a bright green sticky note is pinned to the board with a red pushpin. The note has the words "START SMALL" written in large, bold, black capital letters. Below the text is a thick, black, slightly curved horizontal line. Underneath the green note, a yellow sticky note is partially visible. To the left of the sticky notes, there is a crumpled ball of light blue paper.

A photograph of a blue ocean with a bright sun reflecting on the water. The sun is positioned in the upper right quadrant, creating a shimmering path of light across the water's surface. The sky is a deep blue, and the water is a vibrant blue with white-capped waves.
