This Week...

A photograph of a sunset or sunrise over a body of water. The sky is filled with soft, golden clouds, and the sun is low on the horizon, creating a warm glow. The water is dark and calm, reflecting the light from the sky. The text "DO NOT FEAR" is overlaid in large, white, serif capital letters. The words "DO NOT" are on the top line, and "FEAR" is on the bottom line. The text is centered and has a slight shadow, making it stand out against the background.

I Kings 18:20-21

So Ahab sent word throughout all Israel and assembled the prophets on Mount Carmel. 21 Elijah went before the people and said, “How long will you waver between two opinions? If the Lord is God, follow him; but if Baal is God, follow him.”

But the people said nothing

I Kings 19:1–2

Now Ahab told Jezebel everything Elijah had done and how he had killed all the prophets with the sword. 2 So Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah to say, “May the gods deal with me, be it ever so severely, if by this time tomorrow I do not make your life like that of one of them.”

I Kings 19:3

3 Elijah was afraid[a] and ran for his life. When he came to Beersheba in Judah, he left his servant there,

A serene sunset scene with a bright sun low on the horizon, casting a long, shimmering reflection on the calm water. The sky is a mix of orange and yellow, and the water's surface is dark with a bright vertical line of light from the sun's reflection.
